Premium, and moving from traditional to innovative. Kiwi already innovates in the work itself, adapting a client's design to what can actually be built.

Top five strengths

1	Specialist team: our people
2	40 years of experience
3	Trusted specialist subcontractors
4	In-house manufacturing
5	In-house design

02 Voice

Tone of voice

Serious about the work, not about ourselves. Great, reliable people to work with.

Big and bold

Confident, simple statements. Just Kiwi.

Say less, show more

Let imagery and finished projects do the talking. Cut unnecessary words.

Balanced

Halfway between playful and professional, casual and formal.

Key messages

What we want people to remember about Kiwi. Start from these on the website, in proposals and on social.

CORE MESSAGE

We make it happen.

One team, start to finish

We design, manufacture and build in-house. You deal with one team from the first drawing to handover.

40 years of fit-out

We've been designing and building interiors for 40 years. We know what can be built, and how to build it well.

Our own specialists

A specialist team of our own, backed by subcontractors we trust.

Your design, made buildable

We adapt your design to what can actually be built, without losing what makes it work.

Quality you don't chase

Quality and compliance are part of how we work, not a check at the end.

Easy to work with

Straight answers, clear updates and a finish you can put your name to.

Writing style

A few simple rules so everyone at Kiwi writes the same way.

UK English

colour, programme, organise

Write “Kiwi” in sentences

Not KIWI or Kiwi Design. KIWI is for the logo only. Kiwi Design is for legal text only.

Short sentences

One idea per sentence. Cut any word that doesn’t add something.

“We” and “you”

We’ll manage the programme. Not: Kiwi will manage the client’s programme.

Active voice

We fitted out the store. Not: The store was fitted out by our team.

Sentence case headings

Our work. Not: Our Work.

Numbers

Use numerals: 3 sites, 40 years. Spell out a number only at the start of a sentence.

Dates and times

12 October 2026. 9am, 5.30pm.

Phone numbers

01202 501745

Fit-out

Fit-out as a noun, fit out as a verb. We fit out stores. The fit-out took a month.

Punctuation

No exclamation marks. Write “and”, not “&”, in sentences.

Plain words

Say what you mean. Avoid the words below.

✕ Words to avoid

- ~~Solutions~~
- ~~Turnkey~~
- ~~World-class~~
- ~~Best-in-class~~
- ~~Cutting-edge~~
- ~~Seamless~~
- ~~Synergy~~
- ~~Leverage~~
- ~~Passionate about~~

Say this, not that

SAY	NOT
We make it happen.	~~We pride ourselves on delivering exceptional outcomes for our valued clients.~~
One team from first drawing to handover.	~~An end-to-end turnkey fit-out solution.~~
Talk to one of our directors.	~~Please do not hesitate to contact a member of our team.~~

Example headlines

To show the tone in action. Adapt them to the job rather than copying them word for word.

03 Identity

Logo

Three versions of the wordmark, plus a square profile image and a favicon. Use black on light backgrounds and white on dark. Always use the supplied files.

Strap right

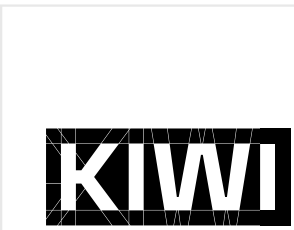

The everyday version. Website header, email signature and letterhead.

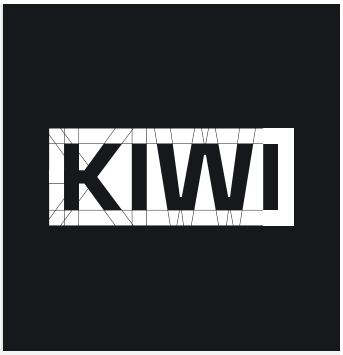

Strap beneath

For square or tall spaces, such as signage, site boards and merchandise.

Primary

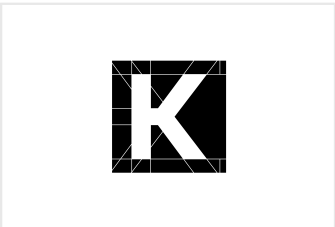

The wordmark on its own, for small sizes where the strapline would be too small to read.

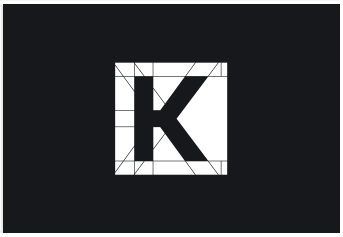

Profile

Square images for LinkedIn and other social media profiles. Dark and light.

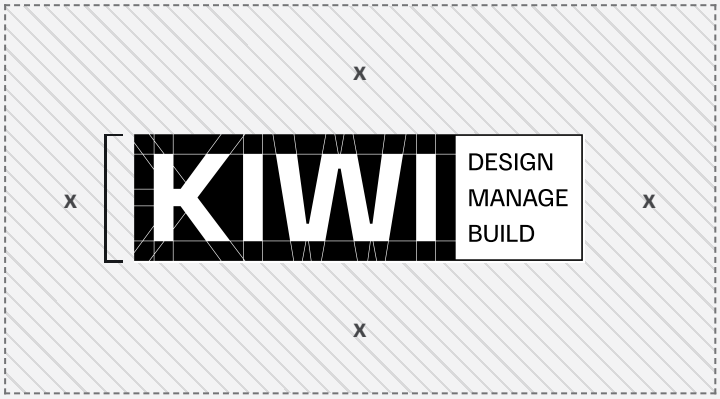

Favicon

For browser tabs, bookmarks and app icons. Black and white.

Logo files in SVG, PNG and PDF, with and without clear space, are in the online guidelines.

Clear space and size

Leave space equal to x, the height of the KIWI wordmark, on every side. Nothing else goes inside it: no text, images or edges of the page.

Minimum size

Version	Screen	Print
Strap right	140px wide	35mm wide
Strap beneath	120px wide	30mm wide
Primary	60px wide	15mm wide

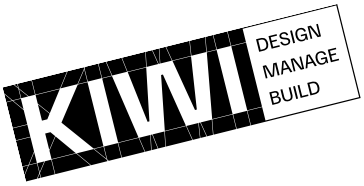

Smaller than this, use the Primary version.

Logo don’ts

Always use the supplied files as they are.

Don’t stretch or squash it

Don’t rotate it

Don’t change the colour

Don’t add shadows or effects

Don’t place it on busy backgrounds

Don’t use black on dark backgrounds

Don’t retype the strapline

Don’t crowd it
